

Terry Danielson

A celebration of the life of Terry Danielson, 60, of Arlington, will be held 6-8 p.m. Tuesday at Burks-Walker-Tippit Funeral Home, Tyler.

Terry was born Nov. 5, 1944, in Brady to the late Bill Otto and Era Ethel Perryman Danielson, and passed away suddenly on Dec. 19, 2004, in Arlington. He was the owner of Danielson Insurance and had lived in Tyler for 57 years before moving to Arlington.

Terry served as a Tyler city councilman, and during his term helped establish and build the Tyler Public Library. He was proud to have contributed to the educational growth of the Tyler community and surrounding areas. He was an avid outdoorsman who enjoyed hunting, fishing, camping and traveling.

His survivors include his life partner, Frankie Eastman of Arlington; daughter and son-in-law, Candice and Chad Millward of Apple Valley, Calif.; brother and sister-in-law, Mike and Janie Danielson of Frankston; sister and brother-in-law, Debra and Roy Cline of Denver, Colo.; grandchildren, Chase and Cole Millward.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the American Heart Association; or Ducks Unlimited, 3334 SSW Loop 323, Tyler, 75701.

DANIELSON

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 26, 2004